BECOME A BORDER SERVICES OFFICER

Interested in a career in law enforcement and border security where public service and the protection of our country is your responsibility?

Then consider a career with the CBSA.

Border services officers are the face of our country when visitors and goods arrive, and residents return home.

They protect the security, safety, and health of our country in an ever-changing world.

And best of all, the variety of opportunities and responsibilities mean that it's never the same day twice.
