

photo by: Noureen Ali

photo by: Aleem Karmali

photo by: Fahim Somani

MUSIC AND ART IN THE MUSLIM WORLD

Explore the serene sound of Indian sitar! Discover fascinating rhythms of Arabic drums! Experience the mesmerizing sound of Persian santur! Learn the exquisite art of calligraphy! You can study all under one roof. The camp will include numerous activities such as games, photography, dance, yoga, calligraphy, painting, and music performance. The camp aims to provide children with an opportunity to explore and discover music and art of the Muslim world under the guidance of qualified and trained instructors from the University of Alberta's Department of Music.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT

- Developing a deeper understanding of Muslim cultures, values and spirituality
- Celebrating diversity and cultural pluralism through art, music and poetry
- Enhancing artistic, social, and intellectual development
- Nurturing talent and creativity

CAMP DATES

July 4-8, 2016 Age 14-17 (maximum of 25 students)	July 11-15, 2016 Age 10-13 (maximum of 25 students)	July 25-29, 2016 Age 6-9 (maximum of 25 students)
Early Bird fee (registered on or prior to May 30, 2016) - $275
Regular fee (registered after May 30, 2016) - $300
Registration deadline is June 30, 2016.

For registration queries please visit the Department of Music at www.music.ualberta.ca