Rethinking identity and Music in Muslim discourse

The Ismaili Centre

4010 Canada Way, Burnaby, BC

November 1, 2014

9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Speakers:

Dr. Hussein Rashid

Sounding Off: Constructing National Narratives through Music

Dr. Karim Gillani

From Roots to Routes: (Re) construction of Sufi music in the world of sounds

"Renowned guest artists will join a roundtable discussion to share their experiences"

Join us for an enlightening presentation and discussion on music and identity.

This program will help 'rethink' modern understandings of Muslim identity in the contemporary world. Through an exploration of music, we will shed light on the cultural/political forces behind the (re)creation and negotiation of identity and forms of expression and their socio-cultural implications.

Tickets can be purchased at: <http://iicanada.org/british-columbia/events/narratives-expression>
