What did you enjoy most about this program?	What did you enjoy least about this program?	What would you tell your friend about this program?
Everything	Nothing (everything was good)	It's really awesome!
I liked that when we practiced debating, we were put with different people so we could know them and work hard with them.	Nothing	This program helps you with your public speaking skills and debating skills very nicely.
The rules and different ways of debating.	Nothing	This program is interesting – increases confidence of public speaking.
Debate preparation. Also how we were split into groups for the debate we had no idea whom we would be with so I liked that because I met new people	Going and talking about the books	That I would highly recommend it and that it is fun.
I enjoyed participating in the debate because I love doing debates.	We did not get to choose our groups.	It was amazing and I met new people.
We learned a lot about 1 topic + did not jump around	Reading the books that did not relate a lot to our debate topic.	This class is very engaging. It helps you with public speaking.
I liked that we read new books – how people suffer in the world	- Books didn't relate	Yes because you learn a lot and get to express what you think.

What did you enjoy most about this program?	What did you enjoy least about this program?	What would you tell your friend about this program?
When we got to debate and argue against the other teams.	NOTHING	Yes
That I made so many new friends and that I learned a lot.	That we lost the debate. BOO!	It's really awesome.
Working with our teams to get information for the debate.	Reading the book Child of Dandilions.	It gives you a chance to build up your self confidence and public speaking skills. It is amazing.
The instructor, reading, the debate.	NOTHING EVERYTHING WAS GREAT!	Its amazing and very interesting.
Preparing for the debate and speaking in front of the adence.	Reading Child of Dandilions	It was amazing
The building of interview skills and more and the debate.	Nothing, I enjoyed it all	It is a very interactive program
The final debate because it was very interactive	Nothing really	That it is a program that is very good for later in life and it is very fun and interactive.
