

Canada Jamati Institutions

Job posting

Deadline: November 14th, 2021

Senior Administrative Officer

Background

The Jamati Institutions in Canada is recruiting a Senior Administrative Officer (SAO) who must be bilingual (English and French). The SAO will play a key role in delivering the strategic priorities of the Institutions through knowledge, finance and risk management; institutional administration; and communications and external relations.

The Senior Administrative Officer will report into the National Administrative Officer (under the Council for Canada Executive Officer), and work closely with other national administrative staff.

Key Responsibilities (not exhaustive)

- Strategic initiatives: coordinate and contribute to key national strategic initiatives, including coordination with Jamati Institutions as needed. Prepare policy papers, budgets and other analyses to deliver high-priority initiatives at the direction of the National Administrative Officer.
- Risk management: ensure the Institutions fulfill their constitutional, regulatory, financial, and legal obligations, taking appropriate steps to identify and mitigate potential areas of risk. Ensure all insurance policies are implemented locally for properties, vehicles and other assets.
- Communication and partnerships: Oversee key external relationships and partnerships, and coordinate priority institutional leadership communications internally and externally
- Institutional collaboration: facilitate communication and collaboration with and among all Jamati and AKDN Institutions as directed.
- Sourcing: oversee implementation of procurement policies; coordinate vendor selection, reviews and management for strategic vendors; manage invoices and negotiations; and serve as point of contact for funeral home contracts.
- Institutional assets: manage tax, utility, insurance, and other municipal obligations; serve as point of contact for landlords; coordinate facility leasing (e.g., BUI classes, temporary Jamatkhana facilities) and service contracting for transportation; and ensure accurate records are maintained. Oversee institutional policies for use of assets.
- Appointments: coordinate and support the Imamat Appointment process (local and national) and support on-boarding for institutional leaders
- Policies and procedures: support the development of national policies informed by best practice, and ensure they are implemented locally.
- Knowledge management: ensure short- and long-term knowledge management and reporting needs are met; ensure confidentiality of sensitive matters and safeguard all documents, files and records. Ensure national policies are followed locally.
- Financial controls: Work with the Local Finance Members, National Finance, and GRB as needed to ensure appropriate financial management.
- Local Secretariats: Provide guidance and direction to the Local Jamati Institutions on best practices for Local Secretariats and volunteers and support on-going sharing and learning.
