Generations: Multi Generational Housing & Community Centre, Phase II
An inter-generational vibrant campus of care

Designed to improve quality of life, the Generations: Multi-Generational Housing & Community Centre campus, located in Skyview Ranch, in N.E. Calgary, includes designated supportive living and long-term care units for seniors as well as spaces that promote mental, physical, social and spiritual well-being.

Working with our care provider Park Place Senior's Living we are committed to best in class care for our seniors and are looking for individuals to join our Generations volunteer family. Volunteers will be the backbone of the Generations campus, collectively owning the well-being of our seniors, children and community.

We encourage all those interested in helping others and building friendships to get involved and reach out to others to come support our care team, therapy team or recreation team. Volunteering with us can include anything from a once a year activity helping out at a special event or it can be something on a more regular basis such as supporting our recreation programming or becoming an active member of our Resident and Family Council. There is something for everyone.

If you would like to volunteer at our state of the art, inter-generational campus, and are committed to serving of our seniors with care and compassion, we invite you to explore our frequently asked questions and complete the application below.

5 STEPS TO BECOMING A VOLUNTEER

STEP 1: Review the volunteer roles and complete the attached Application Form.
