

Karim Jessa MD, FRCPC, FAMIA is Chief Medical Information Officer at SickKids and Staff Emergency Physician at North York General Hospital and SickKids.

He is also Associate Professor, Faculty of Medicine at University of Toronto.

A leader in the field of Medical Informatics, he completed medical school in Toronto and his Emergency Residency at McGill University.

As CMIO at SickKids, in 2018 while he was Kamadia Saheb at HQJK, he co-led the implementation of Epic Electronic Health Record.

His interests include the thoughtful implementation of AI tools in Medicine and the use of mobility and integrated information systems in improving safety and quality of care.

His volunteer activities include serving as the Country lead for Project ABC in Afghanistan and various fundraising activities in the Jamat.

He has previously served as Kamadia Saheb at Headquarters Jamatkhana ICT from 2015-2019 and as Ontario Health Board Chairman.